

I'm LOOKING FORWARD TO meeting her!

*When you are looking forward to doing something,
you are really excited to do it.*

be looking forward to Verb-ing (I'm looking forward to going to Guam.)

*Sometimes you can use a noun (I'm looking forward to summer)

Answer the following questions about things you are looking forward to:

ex.) What do you usually look forward to in October?

I usually look forward to Halloween in October.

1. What do you usually look forward to in January?

2. What do you usually look forward to in February?

3. What do you usually look forward to in March?

4. What do you usually look forward to in April?

5. What do you usually look forward to in May?

6. What do you usually look forward to in June?

7. What do you usually look forward to in July?

8. What do you usually look forward to in August?

9. What do you usually look forward to in September?

10. What do you usually look forward to in October?

11. What do you usually look forward to in November?

12. What do you usually look forward to in December?
