

One...and the Others...(1)

One and The Others is used when you want to talk about one member of a thing or group compared to the remaining members.

I have many suits. One is Armani and the others are no-name brands.
The new mother had quadruplets (4 babies)!

One baby was a boy and the others were girls.

Rewrite these sentences changing the ending to one.....and the others...:

ex.) The maze was very difficult. One contestant finished it ; be unable to

One of the contestants finished the maze and the others were unable to.

1. In the tornado, only one car in the parking lot was damaged ; OK

2. Just one puppy in the pet store window was excited ; sleeping

3. There was only 1 vegetarian dish on the menu ; all meat

4. The test was so hard!! Only 1 question was ; impossible

5. The first day of my vacation was boring and rainy ; fabulous

6. Only one person came to the party on time ; 30 minutes late

7. Just one day was fine this week ; cold and rainy

These next ones change from One....the others to a few.....the others:

8. *The airplane made a crash landing. A few passengers were calm ;
panicking

9. In the crash, a few passengers were injured ; unharmed

10. The museum was robbed! Some paintings were taken, but ; safe

11. The band's new album is not bad. A few songs are great ; just OK

12. On the train, a few people were wearing masks ; maskless
