

There's TOO much snow TO play outside!

The pattern for this worksheet is that something is too much/many noun, so you are unable to do some action (verb).

too much: much is used with uncountable nouns

too many: many is used with countable nouns

ex.) There is a lot of snow, so we are unable to play outside

There's too much snow to play outside.

Rewrite the sentences below using too much/many noun to verb:

1. Our history class has a lot of books to read! It's impossible to read them all!

2. At Christmas, we had a lot of food and we couldn't eat it all.

3. At the station, there were so many people that we couldn't all ride on the train.

4. I have tons of things I must do before my trip! I can't do them all!

5. My car has a lot of problems, so I can't fix it. I'll have to sell it.

6. The old lady has a lot of cats and she can't take care of them all.

7. The construction made tons of noise, so I couldn't concentrate.

8. I had a lot of work at the office and couldn't finish before 6 pm.

9. It's a lot of pressure for me to ask Nancy for a date. I don't want to do it.

10. John has made tons of mistakes and he can't keep working here!

11. Ed has a lot of girlfriends and can't buy presents for all of them.

12. There was tons of heavy stuff and I couldn't carry it up the stairs alone.
