

We ENDED UP just stayING home! (2)

This sheet deals with using end up verb-ing

Generally, there are 2 way to use end up verb-ing

1. When your original plan can't be done; you do "Plan B"

My car wouldn't start, so I ended up walking to the store.
(original plan) (Plan B)

2. When you had not previously decided something, but then later made a decision

You said you wanted to see a movie this weekend. What did you end up seeing?

Finish these sentences with your own ideas using end/ended up verb-ing:

ex.) I forgot to set my alarm clock and ended up sleeping until 1p.m.

1. All the power was stopped after the earthquake, so I _____
2. The new sweater I bought on the net was way too small, so I _____
3. I spilled a whole bottle of red wine in the middle of my white carpet, so I _____
4. Hank became violent, so his wife _____
5. Sue locked her keys in her car and _____
6. My TV decided to stop working just before my favorite TV show, so I _____
7. I forgot to get flowers for my wife's birthday, and the flower shops were all closed, so I _____
8. If you keep driving so fast you'll _____
9. The company lost all of its money and _____

Start these sentences based on the ending prompts:

1. _____,
so I ended up sleeping on a park bench.
2. _____
and I ended up throwing up all morning.
3. _____,
so I ended up buying a new one.
4. _____,
so I ended up having to take the test again.